BSL receives depot grant for $804,000

BY JACQUI COCHRAN

The City of Bay St. Louis announced approval of a $804,000 grant from the Mississippi Transportation Commission for restoration of the depot and surrounding site improvements.

The grant is through the Federal Intermodal Surface Transportation Efficiency Act (ISTEA) and is an 80/20 grant with the city contributing $160,855, which includes design costs of $59,576.

Mayor Edward Favre reported the city and CSX reached an agreement Tuesday afternoon for the city purchase of the depot and the land north to the tracks. An additional offer by the city for purchase of the land south to Railroad Avenue must now be approved by CSX officials prior to final agreement.

He said he would have an answer by next week.

Prior to Tuesday's meeting, clerk of council Mike Cuevas presented members of the Bay St.

Louis Development Foundation and the Depot District Master Plan.

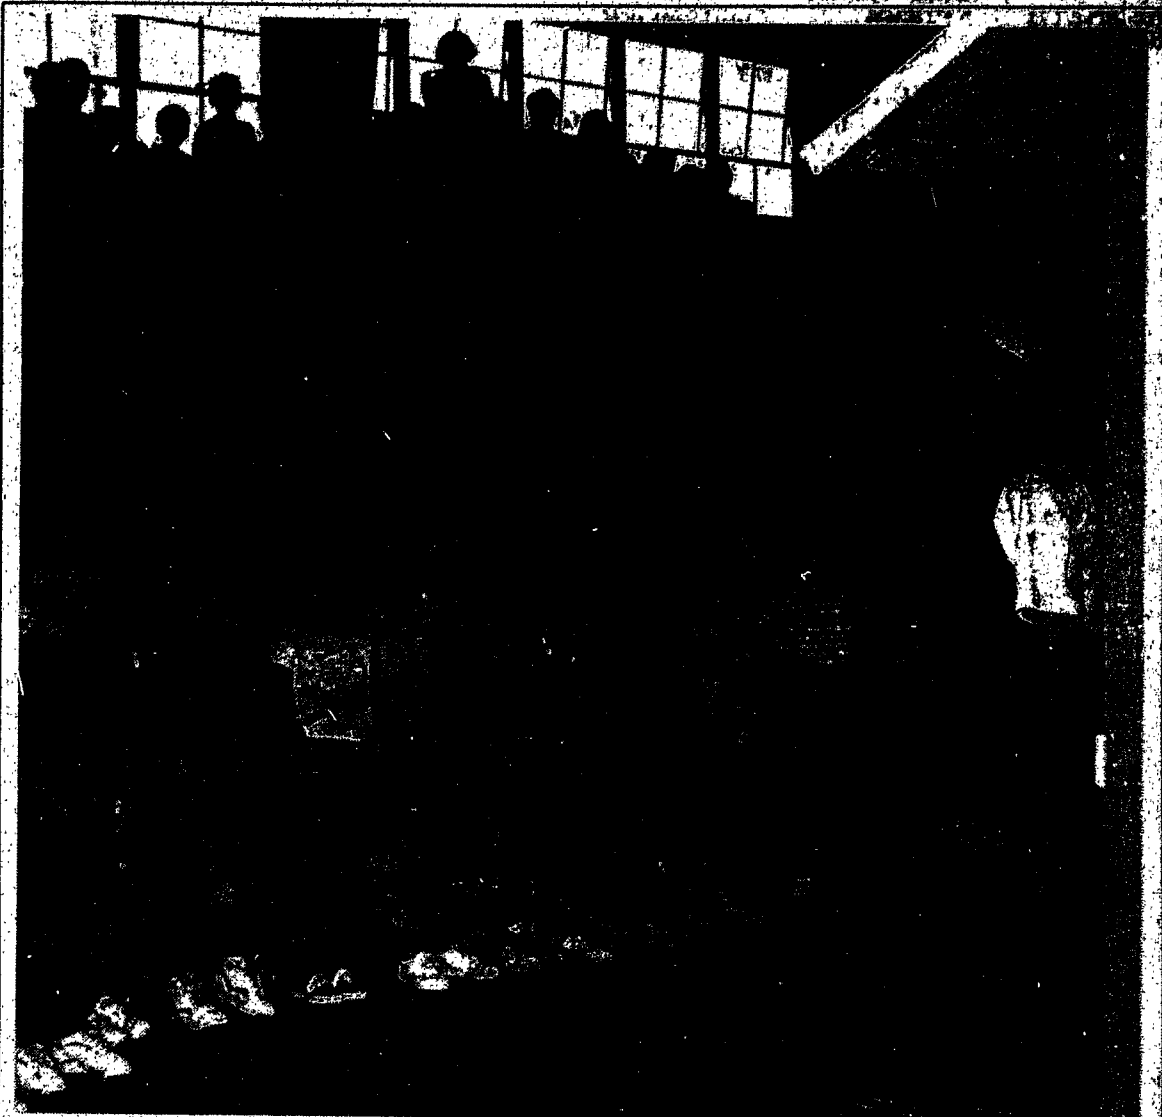

The master plan three phase program includes expenditures of: $415,000 on building code compliance for electrical, plumbing, mechanical, structural, safety and disability access; $150,000 on building restoration improvements, interior and exterior, furnishings and signs; and $112,000 on site improvements to grounds as well as construction of directional walkway leading from the depot, pass City Hall and to Main Street.

The council accepted an extension on a $22,900 forestry commission grant to April 30. The grant includes local share and will be used in restoring and landscaping the depot ground.

Annual cookoff to benefit American Cancer Society set Monday, March 29

BY JANET MCQUEEN

Twenty-five chefs will vie for the top prize in the Hancock County Chapter American Cancer Society's third annual Red Bean Cookoff March 29 at the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club.

Last year's event attracted some 600 people, according to co-chairman Anne Andry. The cooking team of Willard Ladner, Shorty Karl and Royce Shiyon for Coast Electric was overall winner in the contest.

A panel of professional judges choose a 'Golden Bean' winner in three categories: Restaurant, Corporate and Government. Each person attending can vote for his favorite in the three categories on the stamped back of his ticket. The most popular three receive People's Choice awards.

Entries include: Restaurant—Armand's, Bay-Waveland Yacht Club, Daddy O's, Diamondhead Days Inn, Diamondhead Supermarket, The Galley, Lala's Deli, Olde Towne and The Reef/Cafe Reef; Corporate—Bay Tech, Casino Magic, Coast Electric, GE Plastics, Hancock Bank, Hancock Medical, Merchants Bank and State Farm agents; and Government—City County Library, Diamondhead Community (Paul Montjoy/Buck Ladner/Tony Esau/Dennis Westbrook), Mayor Eddie Favre (Bay St. Louis), Mayor Stella Frilot (Waveland), Circuit Clerk Pam Metzler/Tax Assessor Eddie Murtagh/Chancery

Clerk Mike Necaise; Bay St. Louis Police Chief Frank McNeil/Sheriff Ronnie

Peterson/Waveland Police Chief Jimmy Varnell; Port and Harbor Commission and Hancock County Board of Supervisors.

"The Last Straws" will provide Dixieland music on the front lawn of the Yacht Club, where beverages, desserts and seating will be available.

The event will be from 11 a.m. until 2 p.m. Donation is $5, and includes unlimited bean tasting, coleslaw by Layne's Krispy Chicken, french bread and iced tea.

Tickets are available at Jeanne Anne's Hallmark, Bay St. Louis or from any of the participants or ACS board members including Rose Almerico, 255-3698; Janet McQueen, 467-5473; or Basil Kennedy, 467-5793.

N.O. murder traced to suicide

BY JACQUI COCHRAN

A New Orleans man, confessing in a letter to have killed his girlfriend the day before, was found dead in a Waveland motel room Monday by local police.

Waveland Police Department Chief James Varnell reported the body of Kenneth Spikes, 34, was found with a nine-page suicide letter—in which the first line stated, "Today I killed the only woman I ever loved."

Varnell stated, "Spikes is believed to have shot and killed Pamela Sintes, 34, the day before in New Orleans."

He explained, "Apparently around 2:50 p.m. Sunday there was a domestic disturbance between a girlfriend and boyfriend, at the girlfriend's house in New Orleans."

"The woman, ran out of the house and the boyfriend chased her with a gun for a few blocks."

Congressional leaders say staff reductions in place

BY JACQUI COCHRAN

Spokesmen for Hancock County's three representatives in Washington each claim to be ahead of the game in office budget reductions.

None of the three intend to make additional cuts or follow

President Clinton's lead in reducing the White House staff by 25 percent. Each claims to have done so already.

Shawn Bullard, spokesman for Congressman Gene Taylor, said Taylor's staff is well below the allotted 22 slots prior to the presidential election.

"Last year the House voted to reduce office funding 5.7 percent," Bullard stated. "This year, that should be reduced an additional 6 percent."

He commented that the 5.7 percent reduction will go into effect this year.

Taylor's office presently employs 18 full time and two part time employees.

Senator Thad Cochran stated, "I employ 27 persons as members of my personal Senate office staff."

"Sixteen of those are in my Washington office and 11 work in Mississippi."

"These hiring levels are below those authorized by Senate rules."

In January of 1993,

Cochran's office spent $109,096 of the $122,330 allotted.

Lynnette Moten, press secretary for Cochran said, she believes Cochran's office returned unspent monies during fiscal year 1992, but did not have the figure available.

Both Cochran's office and Senator Trent Lott's office reported the amounts permitted per office vary by population and are set by law.

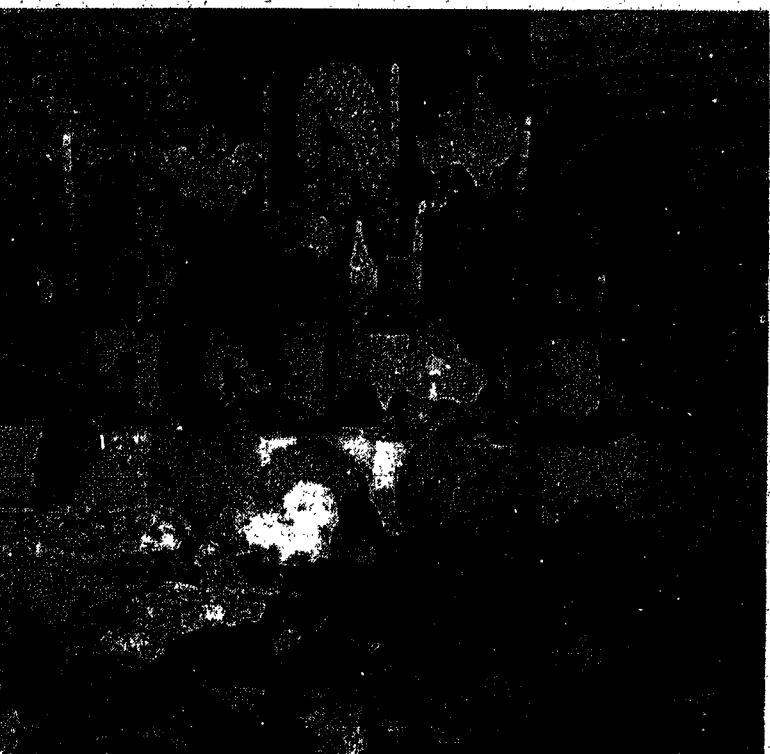

Both offices stated the Senate cut office funding by 10 percent last year.

Bruce Lott, spokesman for Lott's office, said in 1992 Lott spent $1.2 million. Lott did not have available the total allotment figure.

He added, the Senator is allowed 37 full time employees, and at present employs 35.

Spokesmen for all three offices added, reductions in office spending can be reflected through any number of expenditures. Where one office may

St. Joseph's Day altar

Family erects St. Joseph altar for 27 years

BY LIZ HAAS

For more than 27 years Patsy Koerner of Waveland has erected a St. Joseph's altar laden with food.

Hundreds of families take part in the St. Joseph's Day Feast March 19 each year. It is a custom observed primarily by Italian Catholics.

St. Joseph is the patron saint of those in need like travelers, the persecuted, the poor, the aged and the dying.

Koerner's altar is erected as part of a promise she made in return for a favor St. Joseph granted her.

Many families believe that having the altar can bring good fortune. It is also believed a person promises to erect an altar for life in return for a favor received, like a loved one's recovery from an illness or return from war.

It is not sure to her family why Koerner held the first one, but the tradition has continued every year.

This year her daughter, Pat Abney, is offering the altar to St. Joseph for protection of homes from hurricanes.

The tradition started in Sicily when the people pleaded to St. Joseph, their patron saint, for relief from the famine that plagued the island. When rain finally came, they later showed their gratitude to St. Joseph by preparing a table with the foods they had harvested and distributed it to the less fortunate.

"There are all kinds of reasons to have an altar; it may be to ask for good health, for protection or to help an ill person," said Sandy Koerner, Koerner's daughter-in-law, who has helped with the altar for many years. The family, with the help of friends, starts months in advance preparing the food. They have prepared several freezers full.

"It's a lot of work, but you get a lot of pleasure when you see the expression on people's faces when they look at the table and altar," said Patricia Mabry, Koerner's granddaughter.

A large table is erected and piled high with all types of foods, including seafood, veget-the Amtrak Sunset Limited through Bay St. Louis the council approved expenditure of an additional $250 in advertisement, totaling monies spent on advertisement at $1,250.

The city council also approved an expenditure up to $500 for advertisement of the city in the Coast Transit Authority Beach Comber Line trolley map.

The resolution was made contingent upon inclusion of a photo and small description of the city.

The cost will cover publication in 100,000 pieces of literature.

Also approved was a $10 expenditure for purchase of an advertisement in the St. Stanislaus Color Guard publication contest.

TAXIS

The city approved vehicle for hire licenses to Michael Flynn, Bay Limousines and Louie's Cab Service/Mertie's Way to Go Cab Service.

A fourth taxi application remains to receive a recommendation.

Approved was a resolution in support of a local an private bill permitting the Epilepsy Foundation of Mississippi to solicit funds from municipalities and county governments.

Councilman Charles Scianna included in the resolution permission for the city to contribute to the Epilepsy Foundation annually.

Cuevas was instructed by the council to contact the owner of Reed Hotel and request written permission for the city to remove the remains of the dead oak tree at the head of the Ulman Avenue pier.

The tree was stated to be a source of concern by the council as a potential hazard to cars and pedestrians.

CASINO FUNDS

Accepted was $89,128 from Casino Magic for the February service fee to the city, as well as $21,459 in state tax received for the month of January.

Also approved was application for CDBG public facilities grant for sewer extensions.

Favre said the maximum amount which could be awarded was $500,000.

GAMING

Gaming attorney Donald Rafferty reported though proposed legislation to extend dockside gaming into all other waterways of Harrison and Hancock County failed, he expected to see its reintroduction again.

Rafferty explained that Harrison County School District owned 18th section lands on waterways off of Hwy. 49 and I-10.

He added he anticipates a push by the district and Harrison County to revive the effort.

OTHER BUSINESS

Three bids for paving marking were received and taken under advisement.

The council indefinitely tabled property clean up procedures on the Lagarde property as the owner was said to be showing good faith through recent removal of a portion of the damaged housing.

The council recessed until 6 p.m. Tuesday when they will reconvene at Bay High auditorium prior to a Planning and Zoning hearing on the Camp Onward property.

ables, fruits, pastries, cookies, cakes shaped like a lamb and a cross and just about any other food you can imagine, except meat.

The altar, a three-level platform, is adorned with flowers, fresh fruits, candles, statues and breads in shapes that represent objects that are sacred and holy such as a cross or Joseph's staff.

Visitors are welcome to add their own candles to the altar to offer blessings, and the family asks them to do so on Thursday.

No one is allowed the eat off of the altar, and it is not taken down until all the candles burn down.

On the night before the Feast Day, the family and friends will fry, bake and boil seafood and cook the vegetables. The food will be put out before midnight and the altar prepared.

"It's for a spiritual reason, but I'm not sure exactly what," said Koerner.

The altar will be blessed by Father Outhbert "Cuddy" O'Connell of Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church at noon Friday at Abney's home.

One tradition associated with the altar is the serving of fava beans. Legend has it that you will never be destitute as long as you carry one in your wallet at all times.

"It is also believed that if you take some of the blessed bread and throw a piece out of your door during bad weather, it will protect your home," said Koerner.

The celebration, which should last until about two, is open to the public and donations are appreciated but not required.

All donations received are divided among area churches of all denominations.

"It's a tradition, so we'll keep it in the family. I guess one day I'll be responsible for all of this," said Mabry.

Abney's house is located at 1782 Blue Meadow Road and can be found by going straight down Blue Meadow Road until the blacktop ends. It is the first house on the right.

reduce the number of paid employees, that same office may increase equipment purchases.

Bullard reported, Taylor's office saved $365,032 between 1989 and 1992 from the office allotment of $2.4 million.

He claimed the majority of that savings came from reductions in office equipment purchases and supplies.

Lott said any funds not spent by the congressional offices are returned to a general fund, which is controlled by the Senate or House majority leader.

"Few people want that to happen," he interjected.

None of the three congressional offices anticipate further reductions, other than through legislative acts.

New Orleans on Saturday. "The New Orleans police believe he went back to the car and drove to Mississippi, where he rented a room in Waveland and committed suicide."

Varnell said the body of Spikes, an accountant for a New Orleans coffee company, was found about 11:29 a.m.

Hancock County coroner Norma Stiglet reported the primary cause of death was from the ingestion of more than 300 aspirin.

She added there were also multiple cuts on the body from use of a razor blade.

Varnell concluded the weapon used to shoot Sintes was not found. The New Orleans police believe the weapon used and clothing worn during the shooting were disposed of by Spikes prior to his arrival in Waveland.

New Orleans police reported, Sintes worked for the family business, Sintes Boat Works, located in West End Park.

T &amp; G to install officers

The next monthly meeting of the Hancock County Tourism & Gaming Association (T&G) will be 8 a.m. Thursday, March 18 at the Waveland Resort Inn.

The new officers and board of directors for the 1993-94 year will assume their new responsibilities during that meeting. Featured speaker will be Bay

St. Louis Mayor Eddie Favre. Business matters to be discussed will include the T&G's participation with the new publication, The Southern Game Chronicle, and an update on the Krewe of Camelot's participation in Mardi Gras 1993.

Members are encouraged to bring guests.

ACS youth council formed

The Hancock County American Cancer Society Youth Council, formed recently from representatives of each of the area schools, is planning a brown bag project for Nutrition Month. Local grocery stores donated paper bags that will be distributed to kindergarten classes at each of the schools to be decorated representing good nutrition. Each teacher will pick the top three winners in the individual classes. All class winners will then be judged by the American Cancer Society board for overall first, second and third place winners. The bags will then be returned to grocery stores for use. ## Donations sought by Exchange Club for Fourth Annual Auction

The Hancock County Exchange Club is asking for donations from area businesses and artists for its Fourth Annual Fun Rais'n Auction to be held May 7.

The club has established a goal of $10,000, to exceed last year's funds by almost $3,000.

The auction will be held at the Hancock County Civic Center on Longfellow Road in Waveland at 7 p.m.

"We urge all businesses in the county to donate products and services to be auctioned," said Barbie Haas, auction committee co-chairman.

Barbara Lemon, co-chairman said, "These products and services may be of any type and value, and donors will receive recognition of their participation during the auction."

Some of the items auctioned last year were a S&F Pete Fountain Poster, artwork donated by Alice Moseley and a modern claw-foot table with six chairs donated by Speedy Rental. Certificates for free services and discounts were also auctioned.

"Celebrity" items will also be auctioned. Items from Whoopi Goldberg, Archie Manning and Jimmy Buffet were some of these featured last year.

Auction funds help support the Exchange Clubs' Family-Child Center on the Mississippi Gulf Coast, in addition to supporting its other on-going child-abuse prevention programs.

Items to be auctioned may be viewed prior to the auction starting at 6:30 p.m. Food and beverages will be available for purchase, including donated pizza from Dominos and Pizza Hut.

Col. Bob Glover of Waveland and Sam Glover have volunteered their services as auctioneers again this year as well as Billy Smith as assistant.

Area businesses will be contacted within the next few weeks by Exchange Club members to ask for their participation.

If anyone has any new or used items they want to donate to the auction or any artwork, they should contact either Haas at 467-6576 or Lemon at 466-5751.

All donations are tax deductible.

The Exchange Club, founded in 1911, is a national organization of men and women who have joined together to voluntarily serve their communities in a wide range of humanitarian and patriotic activities.

The principal areas of involvement are Americanism, youth and community service programs.

OLG St. Vincent Lenten Fish Fry set for Mar. 26

St. Vincent de Paul Society will sponsor a Lenten Fish Fry Friday, March 26 at Bay Catholic Elementary cafeteria from 4:30 to 7 p.m.

The dinners are for a donation of $4 each and include fried fish, potato salad, green beans and garlic bread.

Desserts and soft drinks are available, and tickets will be available at the door.

Advance tickets can be purchased at Bay Catholic Elementary, Our Lady Academy and from St. Vincent de Paul members.

Your donation helps the effort of St. Vincent de Paul to assist those in need in our community, said spokesman David Treutel Sr.

"QUOTABLE QUOTES"

By Ellis C. Cuevas

Friday night's snowfall is still the talk of the town. I really feel sorry for those who lost power during the storm. Our state was hit hard, but not as hard as others. There are many who worked right through the night during this storm, and I think they need a special praise.

There are Mississippi Power and Coast Electric crewmen who worked through the rains, cold and snow, trying to keep power lines up.

All one has to do is lose power during a crisis time like the Friday night blizzard to really appreciate these workers.

Most homes in the area depend on electricity in one way or another for heat.

Some homes are all electric, while others use gas, but need electricity to operate the heating system blowers. There were telephone linemen working trying to keep the telephone lines open.

Our county crews were very busy Friday night sanding our bridges to keep our roadways open.

They did an important service, as it is necessary to have our roads open, especially for emergency vehicles.

We have our Mississippi State Troopers, Hancock County Sheriff's deputies, Bay St. Louis and Waveland patrolmen, regular and volunteer firefighters, Mobile Medic, and the list could go on and on.

We all have to recognize the important jobs these people play in our community during a time of crisis.

Since you know many of the above too, you may want to give them a special thanks.

Soccer continues to increase in popularity in our area.

The acquisition of a lease on a parcel of property behind the National Guard Armory by the Bay Area Youth Soccer association (BAYS) from Hancock County is a big move forward.

This complex is to be known as the Scott Demboski Memorial Complex. Scott was killed in a train accident.

Scott's life was dedicated to soccer, first as a player, then as a referee.

Tom Demboski, the father of Scott, was one of the founding fathers of soccer in Hancock County.

He, along with other concerned soccer enthusiasts, are pushing to have a great facility in Hancock County.

All types of help will be needed to construct such a facility.

Persons wishing to make a contribution to the fund may write to: BAYS Complex, c/o Tom Demboski, 606 Highland Drive, Bay St. Louis, MS 39520.

Help is needed on Highway 603, as sections of the road is coming up and pot holes are beginning to develop.

Traffic count appears to be up on Highway 603, and fast action needs to be taken.

I realize the two new lanes are under construction, but it appears about the time that project is completed, the other lanes will have to be replaced if something isn't done very fast.

The extra rains, heavy construction equipment, all are apparently contributing to the road's woes.

I worry about Highway 603 as it is a vital traffic artery in our county.

Don't forget the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce's After Hours from 5 to 7 p.m. today at the Bay St. Louis Annex, (former People Federal Savings Bank building) on Court Street.

For reservations, call the chamber at 467-9048.

Musical Puppet performance

Hancock Elementary students received a Bayou Town Musical Puppet Theatre performance with enthusiasm Tuesday. The special performance included Bayou Musical Town's 'Crittter's Unite' and 'Litter Hurts Everyone,' in conjunction with the Hancock Chamber of Commerce Beautification Committee. The school's classes were divided into two performances. Puppeteers were Cherie Schadler, Ron Schadler, Stella Billeaud, with a special appearance by Hancock Supervisor Howard Lizana, Chamber Beautification Education Committee chairman. This was the second annual performance at the Hancock Elementary School by the Bayou Musical Puppet Theatre of the Fenton Community. (Echo staff photo by Ellis Cuevas)

IN CONGRESS

By Rep. Gene Taylor

Cruise-to-nowhere bill sails through subcommittee hearing

After only an hour and a half of discussion, followed by the blessings of the International Council of Cruise Lines, Trinity Marine's vice president Harvey Walpert and nearly a half-dozen maritime organizations, the Merchant Marine subcommittee, of which U.S. Rep. Gene Taylor is a member, agreed to advance the progress of Congressman Taylor's bill, the United States-Flag Passenger Vessel Act of 1993.

"This is an opportunity for all parties involved in the marine industry," said Walpert. "Among the strongest reasons is that the U.S. Flag Passenger Act would result in additional work for U.S. shipyards, and related industries would gain new business."

The measure, more commonly known as the "cruises-to-nowhere" bill, was introduced by Taylor in hope that its passage will help put thousands of American shipyard workers and merchant sailors to work.

The Act would close a loophole in American's maritime law which allows foreign-flag cruise vessels to have an unfair advantage over American built, crewed and flagged vessels. In his opening statement, Taylor expressed his disappointment in the loophole.

"Since 1952, our government has essentially handed the lucrative cruise ship industry to foreign interests," said Taylor. "Over the years, myopic legislation and administration blunders have created a system that discriminates against our citizens and our laws which hold U.S. cruise ships to a higher standard."

In recent years, many U.S. ports have developed a lucrative business in so-called "cruises-to-nowhere." A cruise-to-nowhere is a voyage from a port in the U.S., beyond the territorial sea of the United States (at present, generally beyond three miles offshore), and returning to the same port.

Under U.S. Customs Service rulings, foreign-flag vessels may engage in most cruises-to-nowhere since they do not transport passengers "between ports or places in the United States," which is forbidden by U.S. coastwise trade laws.

However, customs has ruled that charter fishing boats fall within the coastwise trade laws and must be U.S. flag, U.S.-built, and U.S.-owned.

This creates an anomaly between two varieties of identical vessels; if passengers are fishing, the vessel must be U.S.-flag, but if the same vessel is on a dinner cruise, it may be foreign-flag.

The bill would amend the Passenger Vessel Act of 1886 to include within its scope the transportation of passengers on cruises-to-nowhere. Therefore, all vessels carrying passengers engaged in cruises-to-nowhere will have to be U.S.-flag, U.S.-owned, U.S.-built and manned by U.S. citizens.

Upon being approved by the full committee, Taylor's bill will then be sent to the House of Representatives for a vote.

Locations of Hancock Convenience Centers

Hancock County operates five manned Convenience Centers for county residents for disposal purposes.

Convenience Centers are located at Pearlington, Highway 604; Standard, C.C. Road off Hwy. 603; South Barn, Lower Bay Road, Lakeshore, across from post office; Washington/Chapman Road; and Central Maintenance Facility, Highway 43 off Hwy. 603.

Heavy debris, such as refrigerators, furniture and construction materials and rubbish is accepted only at the Pearlington and Standard county land fill.

All household garbage must be placed in the compactors only.

The Standard Land Fill is open daily from 7 a.m. until 6 p.m., while hours for other locations are 10 a.m. until 6 p.m. All locations are closed Thanksgiving and Christmas Day.

It is emphasized that none of the centers or land fills will accept tires, paint cans or hazardous waste or materials.

The general public is reminded that dumpsters adjacent to local businesses are paid for by the respective occupants and these are not for public use.

FROM THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

By Mike Moore

Special consumer alert

Attorney General Mike Moore is warning small businesses to be alert for bills arriving in the mail charging for "Yellow Pages" advertisements. Moore's Office of Consumer Protection reports that several Mississippi companies have been misled into believing these bills are for the renewal of ads in the local "Yellow Pages."

Moore said that businesses should be aware that "The Real Yellow Pages" included in the South Central Bell telephone book are billed through the business's usual telephone bill, not through the mail.

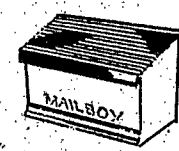

The problem stems from the use of the "walking fingers" logo on these invoices. These companies take the position that the "walking fingers" logo does not belong to any one phone company. Consumers see the "walking fingers" and automatically assume the bill is coming from their local phone company.

"We had a complaint from a barber in Canton, Miss. who paid over $200 for an ad in the 1993-94 Yellow Pages Directory, believing it was for his local phone book. Later he noticed his monthly phone bill contained a charge for an ad in the 'Real Yellow Pages' of the Canton phone book," said Moore.

"This barber in Canton had no desire to be listed in a national directory."

The Attorney General's Office also received a complaint from the City of Clinton, which has received bills from three different directory services within the last two months. Moore suggests business pay close attention to all invoices received in the mail. "Make sure it's not just a solicitation disguised as a bill," warned Moore.

Businesses which believe they may have been a victim of this practice should contact the Attorney General's Consumer Protection Office at 354-6018.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Waveland Elementary principal should stay

To the Editor:
Once again we witness "good of boy" politics on a local level, this time it is within our school system. The superintendent of education, Mr. Tisdale, has taken it upon himself to remove Mr. James Baldree as the principal of Waveland Elementary. Mr. Tisdale did so without the concern as to how the parents of children at Waveland may think.

Our school is evidence of how children can and will learn when parents, teachers, and a principal communicate. Mr. Baldree encourages parents to take part in school activities and he is actively involved with our children.

We have a wonderful system at Waveland, largely due to the fact that Mr. Baldree is the principal. I truly feel that if he is moved the children will suffer a great loss.

If Mr. Tisdale feels the need to target a school for changes I sincerely suggest that he look out his office window, for Bay Middle is in much greater need of his services than Waveland Elementary.

Thank you,
Ms. Elizabeth Zimmerman
Waveland

STREET TALK

Do you feel the beach front festival in Bay St. Louis should continue as it is or be changed?

"I think it should continue as it is. It's been doing fine for so many years, so why change it. It's great the way it is."

Sharon Harvey
Bay St. Louis

"I think it needs to go back to the old format. Last year, it was boxed between two other festivals and there was almost no traffic here. I think it was put on very poorly last year and was not as organized as previous years."

Ava Hines

Winnard: Gaming industry impacts economy

Special to the Echo
Housing construction will increase in South Mississippi over the next 12 months and home appliances will become more energy efficient, according to a utility company economic forecaster.

The rapid influx of gaming operations will boost housing starts, and "(energy) prices and the environmental movement will continue to promote efficiency of appliances," predicted Bay St. Louis native Milan Winnard, forecasting analyst for Mississippi Power Company.

Winnard spoke March 3 at the Center for Community and Economic Development's "Developing South Mississippi" lecture series, held at the University of Southern Mississippi.

The long-term impact of the state's gaming industry is the least predictable factor in the area's economic outlook, he said.

"With gambling coming in, things are speculative for the economic forecast," Winnard said, adding historical data does not exist for the state's gaming industry.

He said gaming has had a major impact on the lower end of the labor market, attracting employees from other industries and nudging these industries to increase wages or offer more incentives to retain their employees. Looking further down the road, Winnard predicted: "Ten years from now, a lot of people will have microwave clothes dryers in their homes... and electric cars will start showing up on the roads in Atlanta."

In the short run, food, lumber, electrical machinery and health-care industries are expected to continue to grow, while the government sector should remain stable.

Apparel and transportation equipment industries will shrink with downsizing at Ingalls Shipbuilding and a national shift toward overseas manufacturers for apparel, Winnard continued.

"Companies in Mississippi have done very well, whereas much of the nation's apparel work has gone overseas," he said, although noting, "Mississippi cannot continue to buck this trend of a shrinking apparel industry in the United States."

Winnard said short-term interest rates and inflation are expected to remain low, although long-term effects are uncertain.

The utility began forecasting the area's economic future this month and projections for the coming year are expected to be completed in August.

ON PATROL

BOMB THREATS

Hancock High School received another bomb threat on Tuesday, in addition to two previous threats recently, according to Hancock County Sheriff Ronnie Peterson.

"An anonymous caller advised them at 9:13 a.m. that there were five bombs planted around the school," said Peterson. "A second call at 9:18 a.m. advised they had thirty minutes to evacuate the school before the bombs went off."

After the school was evacuated, a search was conducted that concluded with no findings.

The case is being investigated by the Hancock County Sheriff's Office and the Civil Defense Office along with assistance from the FBI.

Bay High School also had a bomb threat Tuesday. "A caller notified the school at 10:30 a.m. that they better get the fire department and get out because the school was about to blow," said Bay St. Louis Police Chief Frank McNeil.

The school was evacuated and searched, but nothing was found. "We do not have any suspects in the case," reported McNeil.

MAN ARRESTED FOR BOMB THREATS

Dennis Crawford Blackwell, 38, of Long Beach, was arrested Friday in connection with the bomb threats to the Bay bridge on March 2.

On March 2, an anonymous caller to the Hancock County Civil Defense office claimed he had placed a dynamite bomb under the bridge. The bridge was closed for two and a half hours while agents searched for the bomb, but nothing was found.

The Alcohol Tobacco and Firearms Bureau was in charge of the follow-up investigation along with the Sheriff Offices from Harrison and Hancock counties.

The Harrison County Sheriff's Office arrested Blackwell Friday and charged him with one count of false reporting of placing explosives. He was released on a $50,000 bond.

ACCIDENT

Trooper Ronnie Turan reported an accident on westbound I-10 approximately at the 5.5 mile mark Sunday at 6:25 a.m.

He said Edwin Ricardo Carrillo, 21, of Tallahassee, Fla., was driving his 1993 Ford van in the passing lane when a gust of wind thrust his car into a 1986 Dodge Ram Charger driven by Daniel R. Damion, 60, of Bay St. Louis.

Damion's car, which was located in the right lane, was forced into the woods.

Registration extended to Fri. for girls softball

The Bay St. Louis Girls Little League Softball registration has been extended to Fri., Mar. 19, due to last Saturday's snow.

The league is comprised of girls ages 9 to 18. Registration will be from 6 to 8 p.m. at the McDonald Field, Dunbar and Carroll Avenues, Bill Carrigee, spokesman said.

Team selections will be conducted in a draft system Sunday, and those seeking further information may call Carrigee at 466-4353.

Girls league leaders

Officers for the Bay St. Louis Girls softball Little League recently elected are, from left, Madonna Peterson, treasurer; Bill Carrigee, vice-president; Joan Thomas, secretary; and Frank Yank, player agent. The Girls Softball League will consist of 12 or more teams this season, Carrigee said.

Single adult event to be hosted by Methodist youths

Single adults of the area are invited to a special event March 26 at 7 p.m. at the Main Street United Methodist Church fellowship hall in Bay St. Louis.

A spaghetti dinner will be served for $3 and will include spaghetti, bread, salad and drinks. Entertainment will be a fun-time of music led by Mrs. Mary Howard, who is the church's music director.

The church's youth group will provide the meal and serve the tables. This is their means of serving others and, at the same time, raising funds for some of their activities.

The recently organized group has grown to involve about 25 people who are very active in the church and in other activities outside the church.

The fellowship hall is located behind the church sanctuary at the corner of Main Street and Second Street. Signs will be posted at the entrance.

All single adults are invited. Those who have not been a part of a singles group are especially encouraged to attend. Dress is informal.

For more information, call the church office at 467-4538, or the pastor at 467-6030.

Alanon invites new members

The Alanon fellowship of family groups meets Monday and Friday at 8 p.m. and Tuesday at 11 a.m. at the Rebo's Club, 300 Third Street, Bay St. Louis.

Alanon invites those who are affected by someone else's drinking to join the group.

"The Messiah"

Bay Area Chorale's premier performance will be G. F. Handel's famous oratorio

The Diamondhead Performing Arts Society will introduce the Bay Area Chorale in concert Saturday, March 27 at 3 and 7:30 p.m. at the Diamondhead Country Club.

Joy Merhtens

George Frideric Handel's "Messiah" will be presented in keeping with the approaching Easter season. The masterful choral work is the life story of Jesus Christ.

Singers from the entire Coastal area comprise the Bay Area Chorale. Concert master is Dennis Assaf, with Joy Merhtens as chorale director.

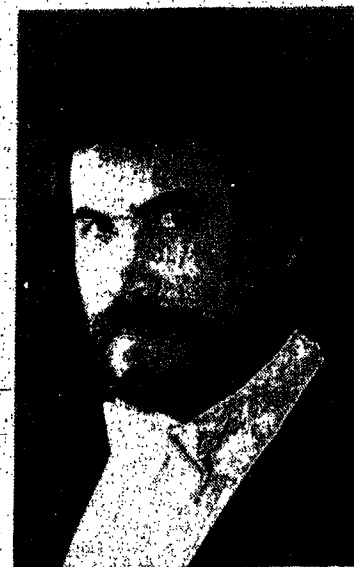

Joy Penny Merhtens served as a choir director and organist for more than 25 years in the New Orleans metropolitan area.

While residing there, she was director of music and minister of liturgy at Holy Name of Jesus Church on Loyola University's campus, as well as the university organist. After receiving a master of music degree, she has performed and conducted choirs throughout the South.

Merhtens currently teaches music at Our Lady Academy and also at Delgado College in New Orleans, where she conducts the college chorus and both the vocal and instrumental chamber ensembles. In addition, she teaches voice and piano at the Gulf Coast School of the Performing Arts in Gulfport.

Assaf holds a bachelor of music education degree from Loyola University and a master of music in conducting from the University of New Orleans.

Dennis Assaf

He is the founding director of the Jefferson Performing Arts Society. Among numerous conducting credits, his major accomplishment has been the creation of his own professional symphony orchestra, which has virtually changed the cultural aura of his company. The orchestra, with Conductor Assaf, has been featured on CBS and numerous PBS broadcasts.

Tickets for the performances are $12.50 for adults and $9.50 for children under 13. The adult ticket price includes one cocktail. Seating for both performances is limited, and no tickets will be sold at the door.

For tickets, send a check and self-addressed, stamped envelope to: Diamondhead Performing Arts Society, 443 Yacht Club Drive, Suite 701, Diamondhead, MS 39525. Please specify which performance you wish to attend.

For additional information, call Carol Novak at 255-6042.

Afro-American art showing planned Sat.

An art showing of African-American artists will be on display at the Mississippi Welcome Center 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday.

Among the various artist's work will be the abstract oil paintings of Bay St. Louis resident Joseph Pearson.

The showing is sponsored by Congo Village Importers of One Magnolia Place in Bay St. Louis.

The public is invited.

COOKING UP A STORM

By Katy McGuire Caire

Procrastination, often called the "thief of time," can sometimes turn into a blessing, or at least a sort of "saving grace." Such was the case with me during last weekend's snow and ice and stormy weather!

You see, as a procrastinator of the highest order, I had put off the purchase of the azaleas and Indian hawthorns destined to be planted all along the front porch this Spring.

All through the weeks of "house arrest" (doctor's orders, not the police, I hurry to add!) following recent surgery, I had been day dreaming about the lovely blooms which would soon enhance the beds along the porch! But, in my usual fashion, I hadn't gotten around to carrying out my plans—good luck for me in this instance!

But fortunately, I hadn't procrastinated on the purchase of fresh fruit, among my favorite foods; and friends had literally showered me with oranges and apples and strawberries and such as well. As you've heard or read, the frigid and stormy weather wreaked havoc on such Mississippi crops as blueberries and peaches, as well as Louisiana's strawberries and peaches and Navel oranges and tomatoes.

The New Orleans Times Picayune reported that Mississippi had lost 80 percent of its $18 million blueberry and peach crop; and Louisiana as much as 70 percent of its $9 million dollar strawberry crop. There was damage to Louisiana's orange crop, as well as tomato crop.

Many elder Louisiana tomato growers, those of Italian decent, the Picayune reported, escaped the loss. They're not procrastinators like me, just wise in the ways of growing things!

"A lot of the older Italian farmers do not plant their tomatoes until after St. Joseph's Day (March 19)" said tomato and orange grower Johnny Beanel of Bell Chasse, La.

"They believe that you can still get a lot of cold weather until after St. Joseph's Day." Oh, perhaps that's what I was waiting for!

So, throughout that wintry weekend, I enjoyed my strawberries to the fullest, tumbling them over ice cream or slices of pound cake, adding them to salads and cereal, and just munching! And, since I was in the kitchen already, cooking a big pot of bean soup, I stirred up a

FRESH STRAWBERRY PIE

2 qts. strawberries
1 baked pie shell
1/2 cup water
1 cup sugar
2 1/4 Tblsp. cornstarch
1 Tblsp. butter or margarine
Whipped cream or sour cream for topping

First, wash and hull the strawberries. Crush 2 cups of the berries, reserving the remaining berries whole; set aside. For the glaze:

Mix the crushed berries with the half-cup of water, the sugar and the cornstarch. (You may use potato starch or arrowroot; my preference is the cornstarch.) Simmer and stir the mixture for a minute or so until it's thick and clear, then drop in a tablespoon or so of butter or margarine, and, if you wish, a dash of red food coloring. Put the whole business through a food strainer. Let cool for 15 or 20 minutes.

Fill the remaining whole berries into the pie shell, and spoon the glaze over the berries. Top with whipped cream (or whipped topping) or sour cream as you prefer.

And, did you know that strawberries were at one time known as "strewberries," because they grow strewn out along the runners?

IN AND AROUND DIAMONDHEAD

By Margaret Williamson

New telephone directory available

DIAMONDHEAD
FIRE DEPARTMENT
Bob Valigosky reminds us that the new telephone directory is available at the fire station. A donation of $2 is appreciated.

They extend a grateful round of applause to Charles Aucoin for his expertise on the computer, and to Jean Jaumont for her hard work in compiling the material to make the 1993 phone book a reality.

Folks just moving into Diamondhead, please make your name, address and phone number known to the fire department so the information can be entered in the computer.

January's emergency runs totaled 14, of these 11 were medical related. We in Diamondhead are so fortunate to have such a great and efficient fire and security department taking care of us. Thank you, guys!

LITTER FREE IN '93

Let's all concentrate on making our county pretty and clean for the Garden Club Pilgrimage which begins on March 24. To adopt an area, street, roadway or highway, please call Bob Valigosky at 255-7198. And for the future, let's all strive to keep our county and communities free from litter.

HOMEMAKER GROUP

Diamondhead has a homemaker's group, and they meet at the Community Center the third Tuesday of every month at 12:30 p.m. If your interest lies in being a better homemaker, come join the group.

"BIG EASY" SHOPPING TRIP

Those "wild and crazy" gals from the Diamondhead Newcomers plan to leave the Diamondhead shopping center at 9:30 a.m. on Friday, March 26 — destination Riverwalk in New Orleans. The time of return is 3:30 p.m. Sounds like a fun day for all. Husbands and friends are invited. Please send your checks for $15 (transportation cost, lunch is on your own) to Evelyn Kibler, 6525 Koula Drive, or call 255-7935 for more information.

DIAMONDHEAD BOATERS

The Diamondhead Boaters Association will hold its annual meeting on March 27 at 9 a.m. at the Community Center. A quorum is needed to decide and vote for events in the coming year. Don Marshall urges all members to attend, husband, wife or both.

DIAMONDHEAD COUNTRY CLUB

A membership appreciation night dinner/dance is planned for Friday, March 26 with dinner from 6-8 p.m. and dancing to the strains of "Take Five" from 8:30-10:30 p.m.

A mouth-watering menu of your choice of Veal Westwego (veal topped with crawfish and vermouth) or prime rib au jus, almond potato croquette with asparagus hollandaise and coffee and tea. All this for $12. There is limited seating. For reservations please call by Wednesday, March 24, 255-2919 or 255-2525.

ACADEMY HAPPENINGS

The Diamondhead Academy will sponsor a Tea and Children's Fashion Show Sunday, March 21 at 2 p.m. at the Community Center.

I'm sure the boys and girls will be showing lots of Easter finery. To purchase tickets, call the school at 255-1784. Come out and give your support for this event.

ACADEMY SCHOOL YEAR 1993-94

Diamondhead Academy is accepting new students for grades pre-school and kindergarten through 6th grades.

The year begins August 16, and registrations are being taken daily from 8 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at the school. In addition to required courses, the school also offers music, art, computer, religious education, physical education and library science. For information, call 255-1784.

DIAMONDHEAD PLAYGROUP

This group is so looking forward to spring, warmer weather, and sunnier skies. They welcome all new families to Diamondhead and invite all new moms and children to come out, meet and play.

Since Easter is first around the corner, they want new and fresh ideas for the Easter bunny. For ideas on how to keep the Playgroup interesting and alive, please call Helen Moore at 255-9528.

DIAMONDHEAD BRIDGE

The March Bridge Party will be Friday, March 26, 9:30 a.m. at the Diamondhead Country Club. The chairman are Marge Bybee and Pat Stafford.

Hostesses are Rusty Cobb, Helen Fortner, Jean Keen, Bernice Turner, Donna Urbano and Gert Wadington.

If you are unable to attend, please notify Marge at 255-5927 or Pat, 255-9336 as soon as possible.

The winners at the January party were, first, Floye Thorp, second, Opal Hickman and third, Dot Sieveld. Good job, girls.

WELCOME BACK

The Diamondhead Canasta Club, which numbers about 18, welcomes our dear friend Bobbi Quimby who is visiting from Texas. Bobbi is one of the founding members of the Canasta Club and is an expert canasta player.

We all learned a great deal from her. Bobbi and her husband Don moved back "home" to Texas, and we've missed her.

Tips On Writing EFFECTIVE Classified Ads

- ◆ STICK TO THE FACTS
Prospective buyers need to know details, like the condition of the item for sale, the size, brand name, color and any other relevant information that would help them make a decision.
- ◆ BE HONEST
Aside from being unethical, exaggerating or misinforming potential buyers won't help you make a sale, and may only serve to lose a prospective buyer's trust. Even if they come to look at what you have to sell, they'll be less likely to buy the item or trust you once they see they've been misled.
- ◆ SPELL IT OUT
Abbreviations are not easily understood by many people and may even confuse a reader. It only takes them a second to pass over an ad because it doesn't seem clear, why let it be yours because you abbreviated a description?
- ◆ THE BOTTOM LINE
State the price. You'll save yourself the hassle of having to answer calls from prospects who, upon learning the price, are not really interested. Price is the first thing they'll look for when reading your ad, and when prospects know the price, you'll know you have a serious buyer on the line.
- ◆ BE THERE
List the best hours to call and make sure you're at home. If you don't list a specific time, you could be flooded with calls any time of the day or night. And when you're not at home to take calls, most likely, they won't call back.
- ◆ ASK US
If you aren't sure how to word your ad or what features to include, why not ask us? Our professionals on staff know how to create an effective ad that sells, they're always willing to help, and there's no charge!

Dragons, Dolphins remain undefeated

Defense, defense and more defense was the name of the game as the first place Dragons and the second place Dolphins battled to a scoreless tie Sunday in the Under-8 Division of the Bay Area Youth Soccer League. The exciting, action-packed contest had parents and fans of both teams cheering what appeared to be sure scoring chances denied by sensational plays by the various goalies.

"It was a great defensive game on the part of both teams," Dragon coach Steve Leonard said after the game. "The play of the goalies on both ends is what saved it. You can't fault the defense in a game like this, the defense was simply superior." Dolphin coach Bill Lingsch agreed, "It was a great defensive performance by both teams, a very well balanced game."

Leonard named his four goalies, Stephen Boh, Jack Ponder, Kace Mitchell and Michael Leonard as the outstanding players of the game. Strong team effort was provided by Grady Wyly, Brooks Breland, Matthew Saucier and Julie and Lisa ReBoul. The team is sponsored by Aqua Drilling.

Lingsch credited the play of goalie Josh Lingsch for stopping numerous attacks by the Dragons. He was supported by Blaine and Jacob Durbin, Colin Wilson and Daniel Ladner. Benjamin Benvenutti covered both ends of the field and had several shots on goal. Sam Tart, Ryan Mullen and Colin Wilson also had some breathtaking shots on goal rejected. The Dolphins are sponsored by Hancock Bank.

HURRICANES 1, KICKERS 0

Michael Bourgeois scored in the second quarter of another defensive struggle as the Hurricanes edged the Kickers 1-0 Sunday, moving into a third place tie in the standings.

Goalie Brandon Strong made several outstanding saves to prevent the Kickers from scoring. Coach Ricky Bourgeois named Sean Olsen and Courtney Eagan as his defensive players of the game. Matt Barber and Jake Pearce played good on offense throughout the game.

The Kickers, coached by Andy Kivlan, were led on offense by Kyle Lewis, T.J. Koger, Will Harris, Michael Kivlan and Brandon Higgins. Defensively, Harris turned back numerous Hurricane threats and was assisted by Jude Walser, Kevin Schaumburg and Quentin Sierra. Keeper duties were shared by Harris, Koger, Higgins and Kivlan.

EAGLES 6, BULLETS 0
Patrick Natal scored four goals, and teammate Keith Herndon added two more as the Eagles won their first game of the season, beating the Bullets

6-0. Coach Barbara Brodtman named Kacey Koenen as the defensive player of the game. Goalie Beau Brodtman made several saves to preserve the shutout. Nicholas Berryhill, Christopher Braud, Dwayne Garcia, Jennifer Magee and Paul Mutter all played a good game.

Steve Kulikowski's Stingrays had a bye.

Action will continue Saturday on the St. Augustine Seminary Field starting at 8:30 a.m. for the last regular season games. The Under-8 Tournament will take place the following weekend. The top two teams will participate in the Southern District Tournament April 17 and 18 in Gautier.

UNDER-10

In Under-10 action, the Hurricanes, sponsored by Goodyear, defeated the Gators 6-1 in their game of March 6. Goals were scored by Remer Covington, Daniel Guy, Billy Kenny and Zachary Cooper.

Defensive standouts were John White, Zachary Cooper, Casey Favre and keeper Neil Favre.

On March 14, the Hurricanes defeated the Hammers by a score of 3-2. The fast-paced, high-action game saw numerous attempts on goal by both teams. Remer Covington scored two of the goals; and Billy scored one goal for the Hurricanes. Top defensive players for the game were Zach Cooper, John White, Marshall Black and keeper Neil Favre. U-10 action continues this Saturday, weather permitting.

UNDER-12

In U-12 action, Art Rieben's Raider team has clinched first place in league play. Ronnie Vanney's U-12 team is in second place. U-12 boys will finish league play on March 20 at the Waveland Elementary field. There is lots of soccer action still left to play, and everyone is invited to come out and see this exciting sport this Saturday.

Grady Wyly, left, of the Dragons and Sam Tart of the Dolphins battle for the ball.

4 earn black belts

Four students from Gulf Coast Shotokan Karate Club of Waveland earned levels of black belts in Monroe, La. Judges were black belts, all of whom have achieved a level of third degree or higher.

Rannie Ladner, GCSKC owner and instructor, earned his third degree level of black belt. Required for this level is the mastery of 16 katas (pre-arranged sequence of movements) and controlled fighting.

Kila resident Ronald Storey, 15, a Hancock High student, earned his first degree of black belt. Storey has been training for over three years and has competed locally and on a four-state regional level. Nationally, he has competed twice.

Two years he has qualified for the Junior Olympics. In 1991, Storey competed in the Junior Olympics and carried the Mississippi flag in the opening ceremonies.

Waveland resident Bob Brundage, 31, works at the Naval Oceanographic Office as a geophysicist. He has been in martial arts off and on over the past 15 years.

Ray Torrence, 11, attends Bay Middle School. He earned his first degree black belt. Training for three years, he has competed locally, in a four-state regional and national competition. He has qualified for the Junior Olympics for the past two years.

As one progresses through the belt system, each level requires more difficult and complex skills with more precision, control and power.

The Dragons and Dolphins remain first and second in the Under-8 Division of BAYS after their contest ended in a 0-0 deadlock Sunday in Bay St. Louis.

Senior women's golf tourney seeks entries

Entries are being accepted for the Senior Women International Four-Ball Championship May 11-13 at Shangri-La, an island oasis on Grand Lake, Afton, Okla.

Format is 54-hole four-ball stroke play in which two competitors play as partners, each playing her own ball. The lower score of the partners is the score for the hole.

An 18 hole qualifier, low 16 teams constitute championship flight — others play in flights of eight teams. A player may also elect to compete for an individual award.

This championship is conducted by the Women's Trans National Golf Association, drawing a field from around the world promoting a quality championship in a social atmosphere.

The maximum handicap index of 25.4 should encourage female senior golfers to call for an entry.

For additional information call former Women's Trans National Golf Association president Iva May McDonald at 467-4364.

Know-Down is a team competition testing pony clubbers' knowledge of horses. The competitors are divided into levels according to age and rating and are tested in such areas as veterinary care, horse management, safety, conformation and equitation.

Begun in England, Pony Club is an international organization dedicated to teaching safe riding, horse sports and horse management to young riders.

The United States Pony Club has more than 12,000 members who participate in such equestrian activities as tetrathlon, dressage, combined training, and show jumping. Pony Club membership is open to young riders up to the age of 21. For more information, call Barbara Kaiser at 255-5546.

FISHIN' Y'ALL

By Jim Maness

What can the fisherman do when he's trapped inside?

It's time to go fishin' y'all. I finally figured out what this weather is good for, or should I say that I have finally figured out that lousy weather, like we have had over the past week, is not conducive to good fishin' trips.

You will notice that I did not say that you should not go fishin', I only said that the weather is not conducive to "good" fishin' trips.

As far as this turtle is concerned, no one should go more than a couple of days without fishin', even if you have to fish in the house, in your bath tub. So, I sat myself down by my computer and tried to come up with some fishin' related things to do while waiting for the weather to become somewhat more reasonable. I mean, like snow in March, on the Gulf Coast, is just plain ridiculous-absurdum and otherwise unbelievable.

The first fishin' related item that I came up with is to sharpen your gnat fileting knives. After all, the use they got the week before last, they must be quite dull by now. Remember that I told you that gnats are hard to filet because they have too many bones; well those folks that felt that they had ta filet their catch of gnats anyway, found out that it is a real problem keeping your gnat filet knife sharp.

The proper sharpening stone is an absolute must and, boy, are they hard to find. I bet you can't find one for sale in the entire area.

Be careful of the type of oil that you use on the sharpening stone as some brands are very hard to get off of the knife. I am told that if you don't get all of the sharpening oil off of the stone that the oil will give a bad taste to your gnat filets.

So be very careful as to the type of sharpening oil you buy for your snat sharpening stone. I have been having a hard time finding any gnat sharpening stone oil in the area, so you might wanna ask around for it.

The next on the list of things to do at home, to prepare for your future fishin' trips, is to be sure that your outboard motor is easy to start, and that it will not give you problems when you get ready to use it on your next fishin' trip.

The best way to check out the performance of your outboard is to crank the baby up and run some gas through it for a couple of five or four minutes.

Since the weather is some extremely bad (rotten is a better word) out-of-doors, you might wanna consider performing this task indoors. I am sure that your spouse would not want you to be outdoors in all of this nasty weather and catch cold.

That is why you might wanna do this test indoors. Since an outboard motor needs a good supply of water to make its water pump work properly, the only logical indoor location to check out the performance of your outboard motor is in the bath tub.

If you do use the bath to check out the performance of your outboard you might wanna give consideration to the following items in advance of starting your engine in the bath tub: pay in advance your life insurance and your health insurance; have a planned escape route from the hour; make sure your spouse is out of the house. In the event that your spouse does not understand why you have just ruined her nice clean bath tub, you should be ready to explain that the only cure for your present condition is for her to allow you to go fishin' more often. Perhaps she will take pity on your obvious need and not kill you on the spot.

These have been just a couple of things that you can do at home when the weather prevents you from going fishin' as it has over the past week. I feel certain that the creative fisherman can find other, equally rewarding things to do when the weather prevents him from going fishin'.

By now I am sure that everyone knows that there is nothing to report as to where the fish were caught over the past week. The only report that surfaced was of a nice red fish that was caught on a mullet off of one of the fishin' piers in the area.

Both the weather and the fishin' will be better real soon, of that I am sure.

This week's wonderful wise words: Lack of fishin' fun can drive you bonkers.

Watch out for the men in the white coats, turtle.

Byrd Scholarships offered

For the seventh year, Mississippi high school seniors will be able to participate in a federally-funded scholarship program. The Robert C. Byrd Honors Scholarship Program will award scholarships of $1,500 to 60 college-bound high school seniors. The program, named for the long-time West Virginia legislator, will be administered by the State Department of Education.

Scholarships will be awarded based upon academic achievement and the promise of continued academic success.

Financial need is not a consideration. Byrd scholarships may be used in conjunction with other scholarships a student receives.

Students will be judged on ACT scores, grade point averages, extracurricular participation and an essay entitled, "Why I intend to go to College."

Applications for the scholarships are available through high school principals and/or counselors or State Department of Education (359-3515). Application deadline is April 15, 1993.

Terry Welch

Welch earns first place

Coast Episcopal High School junior Terry Welch placed first in biology at the 19th annual Mississippi Science and Mathematics tournament.

Welch is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Terry Welch of Long Beach.

Other CEHS students receiving recognition were junior Adam Burdick, who placed in the top 15 percent in biology, and sophomore Mary Vander-Noot, who was in the top 20 percent in chemistry.

Other CEHS students attending were seniors Ellen McFarley and George Hagg, junior Megan Sellum and Whitney Eagan and sophomore Matt Ward.

Co-sponsored by the Mississippi State Departments of Biology, Chemistry, Physics and Mathematics, the 1993 tournament featured more than 1,800 students from 200 public and private schools competing in individual and team events.

- 1) St. Frances Street between Easterbrook and Booker Streets.
- 2) Carroll Avenue starting at Dunbar Avenue and continuing South on Carroll Avenue approximately 600 feet.

The work is expected to last six (6) to eight (8) weeks depending on weather conditions.

Every effort will be made to complete these projects in a timely manner with as little inconvenience to residents as possible and to keep you informed of any delays or closings.

Thanking you in advance for your cooperation, patience and understanding as the City of Bay St. Louis continues in its efforts to improve your services.

Should you have a problem during this work period, please call my office at 467-2724.

Ronald J. Vanney, Director of Public Works

Elementary schools observe 'Be Smart Week' Mar. 22-26

The following schools will celebrate Be Smart Week March 22-26: Bay Catholic Elementary, Bay Middle School, Coast Episcopal Elementary, North Bay Elementary and Waveland Elementary.

The Be Smart project is a one-week educational and drug awareness project for students in grades K-6.

The schools will help the youth realize that a bright future is within their grasp when they develop healthy attitudes about themselves and school and develop healthy relationships with their families.

These healthy relationships and plans for the future will help reduce their risk of using alcohol and other drugs, said Melissa Johnson, drug education specialist.

Theme for Be Smart Week is "Me Today, Me Tomorrow—Drug-Free!" Each day is representative of how the students relate to their world. The schedule is:

Monday, Me and Myself Day; Tuesday, Me and My Family Day; Wednesday, Me and my Friends Day; Thursday, Me and My School Day; and Friday, Me and My Dreams Day.

Mobile learning lab visits Bay St. Louis

A mobile learning laboratory designed to teach reading, writing and job skills to welfare recipients was greeted by city and county officials at Jitney Jungle in Bay St. Louis Wednesday.

Two of the nation's most sophisticated mobile learning laboratories, both equipped with 12 computers and instructional software developed in Mississippi, made their public debut at Jitney Jungle stores across the state this week.

The labs are part of Project Earn Earn and Prosper (LEAP).

The labs were purchased with federal dollars leveraged by the Governor's Office for Literacy and Workplace Enhancement, with $40,000 donated by Jitney Jungle Stores of America, Inc., and the Keebler Company.

Constructed by CENTEC of

Jackson, the 30-foot long mobile lab includes computer-assisted programs. Among them is the touch-screen basic reading program, the only such program in the nation, that helps non-readers become readers by simply touching the computer.

LEAP is beaming basic education and job skills training programs statewide using satellite and cable television technology. They will use the mobile labs to provide more intense literacy training.

The multi-million-dollar program is funded primarily by the Mississippi Department of Human Services and the Office of Job Opportunities and Basic Skills. It provides educational services to recipients of Aid to Families with Dependent Children who qualify for the JOBS program and live in under-served areas.

LEAP, a partnership between the University of Mississippi, government and private industry, will use the mobile labs to provide more intense literacy training in some of these areas.

French exchange students enjoy taste of the South

Special to the Echo
"Bonjour!" "Salut!" "Ca va?" These expressions were being heard throughout the hallways at Bay High from Feb. 15-26.

Nine French students from Bay High participated in the fourth Mississippi Gulf Coast/Carentan exchange by hosting students from the College Notre Dame who are studying English. The exchange students went to class with their hosts and experienced the "American way of life" outside of school.

There were 19 students and two teachers from France. Students visiting Bay St. Louis from France were Anne-Sophie Delahaye, Bertrand Marie, Stephanie Mercier, Vincent Hamel, Marie Eudes, Arnaud Fichet, Delphine Haubois, Angélique Choucard and Jessica Lancre.

The students' English teacher in France, Miss Jacqueline Regnault, stayed in Bay St. Louis at the home of Dr. Larry Heller, and their French teacher, Miss Nathalie Avie, stayed in Long Beach.

Bay High, Pass High, Long Beach High, Biloxi High and Stone County participated in this year's exchange. Bay High students and their families have traditionally hosted more students than any other school. This year Bay High hosted nine of the 19 students.

The students arrived in New

Councilman James Thrifflay presents each exchange student with a proclamation naming him/her an honorary citizen of Bay St. Louis.

Orleans Saturday evening, Feb. 13, and were greeted with signs and balloon bouquets. On Sunday they attended the Nereids parade (one student and Miss Regnault rode in the parade) and then went to Rodeo Nights for country music and dance lessons.

Other activities included a bonfire and "weenie" roast, a skating party, bowling, several trips to New Orleans with lunch at Arnaud's in the French Quarter, a visit to NASA, the Pass parade, a Gulf Coast tour by trolley bus, Mardi Gras celebrations, the Gulf Coast Foreign Language Fair in Perkinston and a farewell dinner. The students returned to France on Saturday, Feb. 27.

From June 30 to July 17, 12

French students from Bay High will go to France to stay with the French students. Those students who hosted from Bay High are Kathryn Edwards, Jennifer Von Antz, Jennifer Summers, Shannon Scharp, Jamie Schaefer, Brandy Saunders, Jessica Fountain, Kellie Murray and Erin Manix.

The students going to France this summer are Kathryn Edwards, Jessica Fountain, Jennifer Von Antz, Shannon Scharp, Kellie Murray, Brandy Saunders, Destin Rutherford, Christopher Boston, Jennifer Summers, Jamie Schaefer, Brad Yanok and Julie Barnett. Kathryn MacDowell will accompany the group and stay with Miss Regnault.

French exchange students join host families to pledge allegiance to the U.S. flag at a farewell dinner.

Willett named merit finalist

Cheryl Willett, a senior at Our Lady Academy, was named a finalist in the 1993 National Merit Scholarship Program. This distinction places her among the top half of one percent of American high school seniors.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Willett from Waveland, she is an all-A student, a member of the National Honor Society, editor of the OLA yearbook and a Student Council representative.

Willett was named Pepsi Student of the Month for January and was voted by the faculty to be the Exchange Club student for May. She was selected to attend the National Young Leaders Conference in Washington, D.C.

At the math/science competition in Clinton, she ranked in the top 15 percent in biology and top 30 percent in math.

Willett is a member of JETS (Junior Engineering Technical Society) Team and SADD (Students Against Driving Drunk). She belongs to St. Paul CYO and, as a member of OLA's Campus Ministry, she visits residents at Hotel Reed.

A member of the Crescent Athletic team, she is a member of the volleyball and track teams and was active on the cross-country and soccer teams first semester.

As a junior, Willett maintained Alpha Honor Roll, starred in the drama "Fortress," participated in cross-country and soccer, and won the academic award in American history and computer.

Willett is interested in missionary work and is considering either Loyola or Baylor for future studies.
